

Senior Technical Operator - Role

To work as a senior member of the technical team in our busy full service post production facility. You will provide the outstanding service that made Fifty Fifty the Broadcast Awards Post House of the Year 2021 Winner. Carrying out technical work, providing seniority in the team and knowledgeable support of Avid edit suites in the facility. The role requires excellent technical skills, attention to detail, ability to troubleshoot and proactive attitude

Duties

- Carry out work across a range of platforms to deliver technical work to required specifications.
- Provide expertise and frontline technical support of Avid edit suites and across the technical department

Skills to Demonstrate

- Excellent technical knowledge
- The highest level of attention to detail
- Problem solve providing solutions based on fact
- Ability to pass accurate training information to junior staff
- Excellent communication
- Excellent client facing skills

Required Experience

- Minimum 2 years experience in a technical role in a Post Production/Broadcast environment
- Excellent technical knowledge of Avid Media Composer and Avid storage inc. ingest, export, conform, syncing and grouping
- Excellent frontline support of Avid edit systems
- Excellent knowledge of broadcast and SVOD technical specs
- Excellent knowledge of post production workflows

Advantageous

- Broadcast QC experience
- Experience in UHD and HDR workflow
- Experience with Baselight workflows
- Experience with Flame workflows

The successful candidate will be an effective team player with a proactive attitude. The role will be shift based including some weekends. Competitive salary based on experience

Please send you cv and cover letter detailing what would make you perfect for this role to [hires@fiftyfiftypost.com](mailto: hires@fiftyfiftypost.com)